I would like to recommend XXX as a candidate for a position with your company. In his position as a staff assistant, XXX was employed in our organization for the period from 2005 to 2012. XXX did an excellent job during this period in the said position. He was an asset to our organization owing to his excellent written and verbal communication skills. He is also very well organized and can work independently. XXX is able to follow directions accurately to ensure getting the job done right and on time.

Also during his tenure with ABCD Company, XXX was responsible for supervising his department's assistants.
